

A diagram of a circular ring structure composed of many small, overlapping, shaded and unshaded segments. Three arrows point to different parts of the ring: d_i points to a single segment, d_m points to a group of segments, and d_o points to the outer edge of the ring.

